GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE.

OFFICE OF THE REGISTRAR OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES IN MYSORE.

Secretary to Government, Development Departments,
Bangalore.

C.S. 88-26-1

Sir,

I have the honor to state that the Inspector of Co-operative Societies, Bangalore City Circle, has again represented that the conveyance allowance of Rs 7-8-0 now granted to him may kindly be raised to a consolidated local allowance of Rs 25/- per mensem.

2. In this connection I have to state that there are now 56 societies situated in all parts and extensions of the Bangalore City and their capital, volume of business, etc., represent nearly a half of the entire State. Many of these societies demand careful attention and constant guidance and the Inspector has to do on an average a distance of not less than ten miles every day, sometimes both in the mornings and at nights, besides attending the office of the Registrar in the afternoon for instructions from the Registrar. The Inspectors of co-operative societies working in the moffusil places get on an average a travelling allowance of about Rs 40 to Rs 45 per month, which the City Inspector does not get, though his work is really more arduous and taxing than that of the other Inspectors.

3. Officers of other Departments (Police Inspectors, Education Inspectors etc.) working in the City whose work is not perhaps so taxing as that of the Inspector of Co-operative Societies usually get consolidated allowances of about Rs 25 or so per mensem. In the City of Madras there are two Inspectors of Co-operative

Co-operative Societies and each of them is given a consolidated allowance of Rs. 20/- per mensem. In view of the above circumstances and the costliness of the place, I request that Government may be pleased to sanction a consolidated allowance of Rs. 25/- per mensem to the Inspector of Co-operative Societies working in the City of Bangalore. The additional cost involved in this will be met out of the provision for "T.A. to Establishment" in the sanctioned budget estimates of the Department.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

K H Ramayya
